MEMORANDUM

regarding additional information, extracted from the archives of the MO [Ministry of Defense] of Russia on American fliers and planes shot down during the war in Korea (1950-1953)

1 16 July 52 Flier Stayli and his wingman were shot down Their fate is unknown

2 20 July 1952 F-86E #15/24-00-1 was shot down The pilot perished

3 20 July 1952 An F-86E was shot down The pilot, First Lieutenant Ellis Dzhon (6th aeh [Air Squadron], 4th Air Group), was captured by the Koreans, his subsequent fate is unknown

4 7 July 1952 Commander of strike Air Wing headquarters Colonel Kh Frank Sivojbor and Major G Kh Bolaj were captured by the Koreans Their subsequent fate is unknown

5 In September of 1952, the Koreans captured First Lieutenant Loris Miller, a flier with the 49th Air Wing His subsequent fate is unknown

6 10 February 1952 Major Dzhozef Dehvis was shot down and captured by the Koreans His subsequent fate is unknown

7 10 February 1952 An F-86 was shot down The pilot's body was buried in the Inri region

8 A report states that in the diary of flier Captain Dzhilbert Tenni of the 51st Group who was shot down on 4 May 1952, it is written that Colonel Shink was shot down in combat on 1 May 1952 Their subsequent fates of both pilots is not known

9 30 April 1952 An F-86 was shot down The pilot, Second Lieutenant Dermond Mikhahyle, was captured by the Koreans His subsequent fate is unknown

10 In August of 1952, the Koreans captured Lieutenant Trit, a flier with the 474th Air Group pilot His subsequent fate is not known

11 In January of 1953, an RB-29 from the 581th Air Wing was shot down The tail gunner, radar operator and instructor-operator perished Colonel Arnold, Major Baulir and other crew members were captured by the Koreans and transferred to China Their subsequent fate is unknown

Reviewed by DPMO
IAW 50 USC 435 Note & DOD 5400.7-R
Date: 15 July 99 Initials: KDK

[TFR 215-2]

HISTORIC-ARCHIVAL AND MILITARY-MEMORIAL
CENTER OF THE GENERAL STAFF